PRIVATE PARADISE – SELF SUFFICIENT LIFESTYLE AWAITS

In these uncertain times our focus is on the essentials - a home surrounded by the natural beauty of life.

Open the front gate and escape into a secret rainforest, home to an abundance of bird life and glow worms. Experience the feeling of pure serenity.

As you journey the property, the landscape opens onto the original timber homestead built in 1938, complete with wrap around veranda.

This 250 acre property features three good sized bedrooms, separate lounge room - all opening onto the veranda, country style kitchen with slow combustion wood stove and gas freestanding stove.

Other features include screens on doors and windows, power, water tanks, split system air conditioning, fixed phone line, NBN connectivity, satellite television, storage shed, carport, house fence and established vegetable garden.

Nestled in the hinterland rainforest of Thumb Creek, located in the Nambucca Shire, this lifestyle property offers a permanent fresh water creek that runs through the property with multiple swimming holes, volcanic soil for growing fruit, vegetables and nuts and approximately 60 acres of cleared land for horses or cattle.
